Stripes and Weaves

The new Loro Piana Interiors collection is showcasing stripes and weaves, on pure linen and cotton, wool and blends.

Stripes

From elegant pinstripes to bold ticking, Bengal stripes and ombré effects, lines are very much to the fore this season. Adding a fresh new look to interiors fabrics, they are also a celebration of colour, with beautifully refined neutrals, and accent shades to mix and match.

All of the options are designed to be combined, offering vast scope for original décor schemes.

Taking their inspiration from our archive designs for refined men's tailoring fabrics are the basket weave linen Benghazi, which presents a positive/negative effect, and the woollen-spun wool fabric Atlas, to team with the wool and cashmere fabrics already present in the collection, in solid colourways or pinstripes.

Grant is in Loro Piana's iconic Zelander® wool, with the addition of a hint of stretch: a simple, versatile fabric which comes in a version with bouclé stripes in four shades on a neutral base. With its textured, three-dimensional surface and sophisticated look, it links the two themes of the collection - weaves and stripes.

Darjeeling is a basket weave linen with Bengal stripes, in new shades to team with the neutrals, while the linen fabric Millwood, with its colourful ticking stripes of different widths set against a white or ecru background, features two tonal shades or a neutral base with accent stripes. Both are ideal for upholstery and pillows. Rounding off the collection is the curtain fabric Calima, a light-weight linen with an ombré pinstripe pattern created using a thicker tone on tone yarn.

Weaves

Linen and cotton fabrics celebrate colour and embrace texture, with special effect weaves. The new Ottomania linen and cotton fabric presents a stripy canneté weave with an attractive three-dimensional look. Available in neutral shades, it is full-bodied and durable, perfect for upholstery and pillows.

Pure linen is used for Savannah, which is crafted with stripe-effect weaves that capture the light in different ways.

Drawing on in-depth archive research, it offers a refined new look for upholstery and pillows.

Linen meets wool in the two-tone maxi piqué Escher, which has a raised weave and a very casual feel.

St. Remy, a classic hopsack weave cotton, presents new colourways, now offering a palette that extends to 14 shades.

Its durability and versatility make it ideal for upholstering large pieces.

Lamotte, a basket weave cotton and linen blend, is a classic fabric in two neutral colourways.

Pastel tones join the classic shades on Fenicia, a light-weight cotton and linen blend, and the wool cashmere fabric Taragarh, which is perfect for rich curtains.

Outdoor and Carpets

The outdoor fabrics also pick up the two key themes of the summer collection, with weaves featuring bouclé yarns. Dehors Bouclé and Sabi-Sands present an invitingly natural hand and are ideal used together, capitalising on the way in which their different weaves capture the light. The stripe theme continues on Dehors Principato and Monaco which has a soft, cotton-like texture. Available with a pinstripe pattern or wide stripes, perfect for curating original combinations in shades of grey, light blue and natural tones. Lastly, the indoor carpets in Sisal present an original herringbone weave, along with the classic stripe weave carpet designed to be edged in Tiepolo wool. New this season for outdoor settings, is a weather-proof Sisal. Ideal with a border in Dehors Plain fabric.

Constantia and Sandton, crafted from cotton, polyamide and polyester in a luminous ivory colourway, present fresh, rich textures: the weaves conceal stripes and chevrons in thicker yarns that catch the light.

Casanova Plain is a fil posé in textural jute, in a light shade designed to be teamed with the striped version in the collection.

The season also sees the debut of wool for wall coverings.

Essaouira, in a palette of natural shades, has an inviting handfeel and a rich look with a distinctive gleam, and boasts all the outstanding natural properties of temperature-regulating, hygroscopic wool. Flame retardant.

Blankets and throws

The Loro Piana Interiors collection is rounded off with a soft pinstripe blanket in cashmere, picking up the stripes theme. Lighter than our classic cashmere thanks to a special finish, it is presented in a palette of fresh shades, hand-picked from more than 250 colour tests. Also new is the maxi throw measuring 270 x 250 cm – available in this size for the first time. It is in diagonal cashmere with coloured bands that echo the design of the classic Four in Hand blanket. This piece has two bands and has been called Two in Hand.

Outdoor
Carpets

The outdoor fabrics also pick up the two key themes of the summer collection, with warm-looking beach tones. Dehors Monaco and Dehors Principato present an intricately woven blend and are ideal for regular application on the sun to which their different weaves capture the light. The single-tone versions are Dehors Principato and Dehors Plain, which have a cool, minimalist look. Dehors Monaco and Dehors Plain are available with a pleated pattern or side stripes for an additional original touch.

Finally, the outdoor carpets in their porous or original knitted texture, along with the Dehors single-tone carpet designed in the style of Plaid Gessato. Now this series for outdoor settings is a workpiece of Dehors with a choice in Dehors Plain colors.
